Justices Eligible for Retirement.

By the 1st of January four of the nine members composing the United States Supreme Court will be eligible for retirement. Justice Bradley has been subject for retirement for over two years. He is now in his seventy-third year. A Justice of the Supreme Court can be retired upon full pay when he has arrived at the age of seventy years and has had previous to that ten years' continuous service. Ward Hunt, who was retired several years ago, had to have a special Act of Congress to give him his retiring pension, as he had not served his ten years' time when he was disabled by an attack of paralysis. The Judges who will be in a few days eligible to retirement, in addition to Bradley, are Chief Justice Waite and Justices Miller and Field. These last three Judges were all born in the same year. Judge Miller was born April 8, 1816. Field November 4th of that year and Waite November 29th of the same year. Miller is now eligible for retirement. Field will be in a few days and Waite upon his next birthday, November 29th. Field is the only Democrat among them. If these gentlemen should retire during Mr. Cleveland's administration, he would have an opportunity of changing the entire character of the court. Justice Woods is quite ill. His health is so impaired that he will not be able to do any work this year. Some question whether he will ever be able to go back to his work or not. If he should not there will soon be five vacancies upon the bench, constituting a majority of the court.

Cleveland in Luck.

Chicago Mail.

After all, Mr. Cleveland has no reason to complain. He has come out with his Congress a little better than any of his predecessors who ushered in a change in the politics of the Government. The rule has been, as Mr. Blaine shows, that the next Congress after such a change has always been against the Administration.

A Nite Mashed.

Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette.

It is not as likely as it was that the next Democratic ticket will be Cleveland and Voorhees or Carlisle and Morrison or Holman and Hurd. Indeed, it is not of much consequence about the next National Democratic ticket. It will not trouble the country after the election.

Washoe Politics.

Carson Appeal.

Powning.—Gimme a bite of your apple and I'll show you my sore toe. Lindsay.—Go to the devil, I've got a sore toe myself.

The Senatorship is in the hands of the Republican party, and no Democratic thieves, no matter how expert, shall wrench the prize from the Republican grasp.—Carson Free Lance.

Our contemporary is unnecessarily alarmed. The Democrats of Nevada have no notion of attempting to "wrench the prize from the Republican grasp." There is one thing, however, that they do feel concerned about, and that is that the prize should be awarded properly. As the Democrats individually have as much interest in the welfare of this State as the Republicans, they are anxious that they should be represented in the Senate by a bona fide resident—not by a carpet-bagger sent here by the Central Pacific, who barely reached Carson in time to be eligible to vote at the recent election. Stewart can yet be beaten. Elect Daggett, Powning, Wren or any respectable Republican, and drag Nevada out of the political mire in which she now seems to be wallowing.—Virginia Chronicle.

The Democracy of Nevada went into the late campaign on the "Home Rule" cry, and accused the Republicans of importing candidates for office. The Cleveland Administration apparently has no sympathy with Democratic sentiment in the sagebrush, since the appointment is announced of Charles W. Irish, of Iowa City, Iowa, to be Surveyor General of Nevada, in place of C. O. Powning, of Reno. Mr. Irish is a brother of Colonel John P. Irish, of this city. There are plenty of Democrats in the Silver State who wanted the office and were competent to fill it.—S. F. Post.

The Enterprise is now busy in hunting up more Nevada resources for the benefit of the C. P. Railroad and Stewart. Those upon which our State has heretofore relied are believed to be pretty much exhausted, and hence the cry for more worlds to plunder.—Carson Union.

The Virginia Chronicle says: The Carson Appeal publishes the following blood-curdling paragraph: There is in a safe in Virginia City a contract between James G. Fair and a certain Republican, to the effect that the Republican was to get up a division in the Republican party in Storey county and have a certain amount of money to carry it through. It was found that it was impossible to make the split, but the contract was made all the same, signed by both parties, and still exists. The existence of one such paragraph is fully established, and the balance will come to light in due time.

Show up the mercenary scoundrel, Samuel. The Chronicle thinks it could stir up public indignation to such a pitch that he would be lynched—especially if it can be proved that the Honorable(?) W. M. Stewart was the intended victim of the vile conspiracy.

Who was the man Samuel. Let him be shown up and read out of the party.

The people of Nevada are to be congratulated upon the prospect of a proper representation in Washington.—Enterprise.

If our neighbor has reference to the probable election of Mr. Stewart to the Senate, we fail to see the point. In that case sympathy rather than congratulation will be needed. The Central Pacific Railroad Company will tighten its grip upon the throat of Nevada and squeeze out what little life there is left in it. With such an active and obedient servant in the Senate it is hard to say what enormities may not be perpetrated by the railroad companies at the expense of this people. Let us hope that Stewart may yet be beaten by a clean and wholesome Republican.—Virginia Chronicle.

Advices from trustworthy sources in Constantinople and Berlin state that Bismark's influence is still predominant and the Sultan has again sought his guidance. Unless Turkey is prepared to fight and Bismark gives the word the probability is that Austria and England will do nothing, and Russia, knowing that she is perfectly safe, will proceed with the development of her plans in Bulgaria as though Salisbury had not spoken.

The Virginia Chronicle says it is informed that a bill will be introduced in the next Nevada Legislature making a residence of at least two years in the State a qualification for an officeholder. Although it somewhat like looking the stable door after the horse has been stolen, it will if enacted be of future benefit. If such a law were in force now, Mr. Stewart would lack just a year and a half of being eligible to the United States Senatorship.

The Carson Appeal was badly scared before the election. It said:

The success of the Mugwump Legislative ticket means a delegation in the Legislative session that no party will recognize or affiliate with. An effort will be made by Reno to take away the State Prison. With our Legislative delegates tied hand and foot by being outside the pale of either party, Ormsby will be helpless at the feet of the Washoe schemers and our State Prison will be removed. After that the Orphans' Home and the Capitol.

We have no personal acquaintance with Mr. Sproule, the Republican Postmaster at Elko, who was removed the other day, but it is a mighty good certificate of genuine Republicanism when Cleveland bounces a man for "offensive partisanship." Wonder if Powning will be removed from his snug little berth?—Enterprise.

This was before the election, and now that the event has happened the Enterprise is still unhappy.

The Eastern gold-bugs are already alarmed at the prospect of Stewart's reappearance in the U. S. Senate.—Appeal.

What are they afraid of? Silver will advance even should Stewart die.

The altitude of Carson is 4,730 feet. Reno is 240 feet lower down; so we beat her that much.—Carson Index.

All the same Reno is too high for you.

The composition of the next House is now placed at 153 Republicans to 171 Democrats, Labor candidates and Independents.

Mr. Wren is opposed to a caucus. The Enterprise will please read him out of the party.

Fort Halleck Military Reservation.

The following letters explain themselves:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8, 1886.
C. C. Powning, Esq., U. S. Surveyor
General, Reno, Nevada:

SIR:—Herewith inclosed I transmit copy of an Executive order dated October 11, 1886, transferring to the custody of the Secretary of the Interior the Fort Halleck Reservation in Nevada, under Act of Congress approved July 5, 1884.

You will make proper note of said order upon the records of your office and acknowledge receipt hereof.

Very respectfully,
WM. A. J. SPARKS,
Commissioner.

EXECUTIVE MANSION.

WHEREAS, By the provisions of an Act of Congress entitled, "An Act to provide for the disposal of abandoned and useless military reservations," approved July 5, 1884, the President of the United States whenever, in his opinion, "the lands or any portion of them, included within the limits of any military reservation, heretofore or hereafter declared, have become or shall become useless for military purposes," is directed to "cause the same, or so much thereof as he may designate, to be placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition," as provided for in said Act; and

WHEREAS, The Secretary of War has reported to me, under date of October 11, 1886, that the military reservation of Fort Halleck, Nevada, is no longer needed for military purposes; therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby direct that the military reservation of Fort Halleck, Nevada, being the same as that named in the report of the Secretary of War heretofore mentioned, be placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition, as provided for in the said Act of July 5, 1884, it having, in my opinion, become useless for military purposes.

Given under my hand this the eleventh day of October, A. D., 1886.

(Signed:) GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the President:

(Signed:) WM. C. ENDICOTT,
Secretary of War.

The New York Senatorship.

A World's Albany dispatch on the Senatorial contest says: Shrewd politicians here are outspoken in their opinion that, while Mr. Blaine categorically is standing with hands off the Senatorial contest in this State, he has given one of his sly winks that Morton is the coming man. "After all," said a well-known New York politician, "it is as the New York Central Railway Company says it shall be. If the corporation loans for Miller, he will not be beaten. If it favors Morton he will be United States Senator. There is no question about the friendship existing between Blaine and Chauncey M. Depew. The latter will only be too happy to oblige the former in any manner, so long as he will not compromise himself nor his railway. Blaine is looking for the re-nomination in 1888. Any Republican will have an excellent opportunity to carry the next election. He is looking for strong men—strong politically and strong financially. Mr. Blaine's first choice for the Senatorship was Mr. Depew, but nothing but the nomination for the Presidency will persuade the New York Central's President to give up his present easy life. There is no question that the fight for the Senatorship will, with the exception of that after Platt and Conkling resigned, exceed anything the State has seen for half a century.

The events of election day in Cascade precinct, in the Sierras of California, were interesting up to the point of piquancy. For a ballot box a bottle was used. Other bottles with more hilarious contents assisted in the ceremonies, and when sociability had somewhat disabled the judges of election, a lady interfered and in the interest of good government captured and threw away what she supposed to be the whisky bottle. When the officers recovered their official poise it appeared that the invading female had thrown away the bottle containing the ballots, and the judges had nothing to tally except the drinks remaining in the bottle she had intended to take.—S. F. Alta.

Because Mr. Wren demands Home Rule for Nevada he is denounced by the Reno Gazette and other Republican papers of the State. It looks as though the importing of Californians to represent Nevada in the United States Senate is the quintessence of Republicanism in Storey, Washoe and Ormsby.—Sentinel.

HOW IT STICES.

Eureka Sentinel, Nov. 14th.

"The Rotten Borough Goes Republican," is the way several of the New York papers head their telegrams containing the election news from Nevada; and in commenting on the result one or two of them say that the "Rotten Borough" has again sold its United States Senatorship to a rich Californian. We predicted during the canvass precisely this state of the case.

There are as many good and true men in both parties in Nevada, in proportion to population, as are to be found elsewhere in the world, but somehow it seems impossible to arouse in them that degree of pride in the fair name of their State that characterizes the citizens of the older States of the Union. They are indifferent, and let things drift as they may without protest. In the campaign just closed the decent men of the State should have asserted themselves, and at one blow stricken from the name of our commonwealth the disgraceful epithet that has so long attached to it. Suppose that six months ago Wm. M. Stewart, of California, had gone to New York or any other Eastern State and set up as a candidate for United States Senator. (Certainly he had as much right to do so in any Eastern State as in Nevada.) How would he have been received and what would have been the result? It requires no prophet to foretell that he would have been literally hooted and booed out for his impudence. If he could not do this in any Eastern State, which manifestly he could not, then why should he be permitted to walk rough-shod over the people of Nevada. No wonder we are called the "Rotten Borough." We deserve not only eternal disgrace but will merit eternal damnation as well, if we elect Bill Stewart to the United States Senate.

A PROBABLE BLACK HORSE.

The Eureka Sentinel says:

There is considerable talk in this section in favor of Mr. Eugene N. Robinson, of Hamilton, White Pine, for United States Senator. Mr. Robinson is a man of ability and character, and possesses the further qualification of being a permanent resident of the State—actual and not constructive as our Constitution requires. He has resided in White Pine continuously for the last five years, where he has carried on extensive mining operations. He is deservedly popular all through this section of the State. He is a staunch Republican from principle, and has ample means to make a strong canvass before the Legislature should he conclude to enter the list of aspirants. A man full of energy, he does things with a rush, and should he start for the Senatorial persimmon he would be certain to make a lively and brilliant campaign. The Sentinel would not be displeased if Mr. Robinson got in and carried off the baggage.

The President has appointed Charles W. Irish, of Iowa City, Ia., United States Surveyor General of Nevada, vice C. C. Powning. There is now no Republican in the United States holding the office of U. S. Surveyor General.—Ogden News.

Free trade would reduce the wages of every miner on the Comstock. Such a flood of discharged Eastern mechanics would flock to the mining districts that a man's work would bring just half what it does to-day.—Enterprise.

The Silver State thinks that Wren may yet beat Stewart for the Senatorship with the aid of the Democratic members of the Legislature. The Sentinel is for Wren on any basis that he can succeed.—Eureka Sentinel.
